ANNEXURE

THE BOMBAY HOME GUARDS ACT, 1947 AS EXTENDED TO THE UNION TERRITORY OF TRIPURA

BOMBAY ACT NO. III OF 1947

An Act to provide for the Constitution of Home Guards.

Whereas it is expedient to provide a volunteer organisation for use in emergencies and for other purposes in the State of Bombay. It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Bombay Home Guards Act, 1947.

- (2) It extends to the whole of the Union territory of Tripura.
- (3) It shall come into force at once.

1A. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) "Chief Commissioner" means the Chief Commissioner of the Union territory of Tripura;
- (b) "Official Gazette" means the Tripura Gazette.

2. Constitution of Home Guards and appointment of Commandant General and Commandant.—(1) The Chief Commissioner shall constitute for the Union territory of Tripura a volunteer body called the Home Guards, the members of which shall discharge such functions and duties in relation to the protection of persons, the security of property and the public safety as may be assigned to them in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder:

Provided that the Chief Commissioner may, by notification in the Official Gazette, divide the Union territory of Tripura into two or more areas and constitute such a volunteer body for each such area.

(1A)    **                 **                 **                 **                 **

(2) The Chief Commissioner may appoint a Commandant of each of the Home Guards constituted under sub-section (1).

(3) The Chief Commissioner shall appoint a Commandant General of the Home Guards in whom shall vest the general supervision and control of the Home Guards throughout the Union territory of Tripura and until a Commandant is appointed under sub-section (2) the Commandant General may also exercise the powers and perform the functions assigned to the Commandant by or under this Act.

3. Appointment of members.—(1) Subject to the approval of the Commandant General, the Commandant may appoint as members of the Home Guards such number of persons, who are fit and willing to serve, as may from time to time be determined by the Chief Commissioner, and may appoint any such member to any office of command in the Home Guards.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) the Commandant General may, subject to the approval of the Chief Commissioner, appoint any such member to any post under his immediate control.

(3) ** ** ** **

4. Functions and duties of members.—(1) The Commandant may at any time call out a member of the Home Guards for training or to discharge any of the functions or duties assigned to the Home Guards in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.

(2) The Commandant General may in an emergency call out a member of the Home Guards for training or to discharge any of the said functions or duties in any part of the Union territory of Tripura.

5. Powers, protection and control.—(1) A member of the Home Guards when called out under section 4 shall have the same powers, privileges and protection as an officer of police appointed under any Act for the time being in force.

(2) No prosecution shall be instituted against a member of the Home Guards in respect of anything done or purporting to be done by him in the discharge of his functions or duties as such member except with the previous sanction of the District Magistrate.

6. Control by officers of police force.—The members of the Home Guards when called out under section 4 in aid of the police force shall be under the control of the officers of the police force in such manner and to such extent as may be prescribed by rules made under section 8.

6A. Certificate, arms, etc., to be delivered up by person ceasing to be member.—

(1) Every person who for any reason ceases to be a member of the Home Guards shall forthwith deliver up to the Commandant or to such person and at such place as the Commandant may direct, his certificate of appointment or of office and the arms, accoutrements, clothing and other necessities which have been furnished to him as such member.

(2) Any Magistrate, and for special reasons which shall be recorded in writing at the time, any police officer not below the rank of a Deputy Superintendent of Police may issue a warrant to search for and seize, wherever they may be found, any certificate, arms, accoutrements, clothing or other necessities not so delivered up. Every warrant so issued shall be executed in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), by a police officer or if the Magistrate or the police officer issuing the warrant so directs by any other person.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to apply to any article which under the orders of the Commandant General has become the property of the person to whom the same was furnished.

6B. Punishment of members for neglect of duty, etc.—(1) The Commandant shall have the authority to suspend, reduce or dismiss or fine, to an amount not exceeding fifty rupees, any member of the Home Guards, under his control, if such member, without reasonable cause, on being called out under section 4 neglects or refuses to obey such order or to discharge his functions and duties as a member of Home Guards or to obey any lawful order or direction given to him for the performance of his functions and duties or is guilty of any breach of discipline or misconduct. The Commandant shall also have the authority to dismiss any member of the Home Guards on the grounds of conduct which has led to his conviction on a criminal charge. The Commandant General shall have the like authority in respect of any member of the Home Guards appointed to a post under his immediate control.

(1A) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Commandant shall have the authority to discharge any member of the Home Guards at any time subject to such conditions as may be prescribed if, in the opinion of the Commandant, the services of such member are no longer required. The Commandant General shall have the like authority in respect of any member of the Home Guards appointed to a post under his immediate control.

(2) When the Commandant General or the Commandant passes an order for suspending, reducing, dismissing or fining any member of the Home Guards under sub-section (1), he shall record such order or cause the same to be recorded, together with the reasons therefor and a note of the inquiry made, in writing, and no such order shall be passed by the Commandant General or the Commandant unless the person concerned is given an opportunity to be heard in his defence.

(3) Any member of the Home Guards aggrieved by an order of the Commandant may appeal against such order to the Commandant General and any such member aggrieved by an order of the Commandant General may appeal against such order to the Chief Commissioner, within thirty days of the date on which he was served with notice of such order. The Commandant General or the Chief Commissioner, as the case may be, may pass such order as he thinks fit.

(4) The Commandant General or the Chief Commissioner may at any time call for and examine the record of any order passed by the Commandant or Commandant General, respectively, under sub-section (1) or (1A) for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of such order passed by the Commandant or the Commandant General, as the case may be, and may pass such order with reference thereto as he thinks fit.

(5) Every order if no appeal is made therefrom as hereinbefore provided and every order passed in appeal or revision under this section shall be final.

(6) Any fine imposed under this section may be recovered in the manner provided by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), for the recovery of fines imposed by a Court as if such fine were imposed by a Court.

(7) Any punishment inflicted on a member of the Home Guards under this section shall be in addition to the penalty to which such member is liable under section 7 or any other law for the time being in force.

Explanation.—Where the Commandant General, while exercising the powers of the Commandant, passes any order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (1A)—

(a) the appeal from such order shall lie to the Chief Commissioner;

(b) for the purposes of sub-section (4), the power of revision in respect of such order shall vest in the Chief Commissioner.

7. Penalty.—(1) If any member of the Home Guards, on being called out under section 4, without reasonable excuse neglects or refuses to obey such order, or to discharge his functions as a member of the Home Guards, or to obey any lawful order or direction given to him for the performance of his duties, he shall, on conviction, be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees or with both.

(1A) If any member of the Home Guards wilfully neglects or refuses to deliver up his certificate of appointment or of office or any other article, in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 6A, he shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month or with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees or with both.

(2) No proceedings shall be instituted under sub-section (1) or (1A) without the previous sanction of the Commandant.

(3) A Police officer may arrest without warrant any person who commits an offence punishable under sub-section (1) or (1A).

8. Rules.—The Chief Commissioner may make rules consistent with this Act,—

- (a) providing for the exercise by any officer of the Home Guards of the powers conferred by section 4 on the Commandant and the Commandant General;
- (b) providing for the exercise of control by officers of the police force over members of the Home Guards when acting in aid of the police force;
- (c) regulating the organisation, appointment, conditions of service, functions, discipline, arms, accoutrements and clothing of members of the Home Guards and the manner in which they may be called out for service;
- (d) regulating the exercise by members of the Home Guards of any of the powers exercisable under section 5 of this Act;
- (e) generally for giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

9. Members of Home Guards to be public servants.—Members of the Home Guards acting under this Act (XLV of 1860) shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

9A. Home Guards not disqualified from contesting elections to the local bodies.—(1) * * * *

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained to the contrary in any other law for the time being in force, a member of the Home Guards shall not be disqualified for being chosen as, and for being, a member of any local authority merely by reason of the fact that he is a member of the Home Guards.

Any objection or suggestion which may be received from any person with respect to the draft rules before the said date, will be considered by the Central Government.

RULES

1. These rules may be called the Registration of Foreigners (Amendment) Rules, 1962.

2. In the Registration of Foreigners Rules, 1939 (hereinafter referred to as the said rules), for sub-rule (2) of rule 5, the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“(2) Every registration report shall be made in writing, in the English language and in quadruplicate and shall contain a true statement of the foreigner's address in India and of the other particulars specified in items 2 to 10 of Form A and such of the particulars specified in items 12 to 16 thereof, as may be appropriate;”

3. In rule 10 of the said rules, for the proviso to sub-rule (3), the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

“Provided that any such foreigners as aforesaid who has furnished particulars for the completion of Form F in accordance with the provisions of rule 14 or has obtained a travel permit in accordance with sub-rule (2) shall be deemed to have complied with this sub-rule.”

4. In rule 14 of the said rules,

(i) for sub-rule (1), the following sub-rule shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) Every keeper of a hotel shall require every visitor to the hotel to furnish the particulars necessary for recording, and sign, on his arrival at the hotel, his name and nationality in a register in Form F and if any such visitor is a foreigner, shall further require him—

- (a) on his arrival at such hotel, to furnish the other particulars specified in items 4 to 10 of the said register, and
- (b) at the time of his departure from such hotel, to furnish the particulars necessary for recording, in the said register, the date and time of his departure and the address to which he is proceeding.”

(ii) for sub-rules (3) to (5), the following sub-rules shall be substituted, namely:—

“(3) Every visitor to any hotel shall, on being required so to do by the keeper of the hotel, furnish the particulars necessary for recording, and sign, his name and nationality, in the register prescribed by sub-rule (1) and, if such visitor is a foreigner, shall also—

- (a) on his arrival at such hotel furnish the other particulars specified in items 4 to 10 of the said register, and
- (b) at the time of his departure from such hotel, furnish the particulars necessary for recording, in the said register, the date and time of his departure and the address to which he is proceeding.

(4) Every particular, other than the signature of the keeper of a hotel or a visitor, which is required by this rule to be recorded in the said register, shall be recorded by the keeper of the hotel and in the English language, if he is so able, or otherwise, in an Indian language.

(5) If a visitor does not understand the English language, it shall be the duty of the keeper of the hotel, if so requested, to explain to the visitor the requirements of this rule and Form F.”

5. For Forms A and C appended to the said rules, the following Forms shall respectively be substituted, namely:—

(Department of Agriculture)

New Delhi, the 23rd October 1962

G.S.R. 1449.—In pursuance of the provisions of rule 45 of the Fundamental Rules, the President is pleased to make the following further amendments to the Supplementary Rules issued with the Government of India, Finance Department letter No. 104—C.S.R. dated the 4th February 1922, namely:—

In part VIII of the said rules, after Division XXVI-N, the following heading and Rules shall be inserted, namely:—

“Division XXVI—O—The Indian Institute of Sugarcane Research (Allotment of Residences) Rules 1962.”

S.R. 317-(O)

1. Short title, application and commencement—(1) These rules may be called the Indian Institute of Sugarcane Research (Allotment of residence) Rules 1962.

(2) These rules shall apply to the allotment of residences except those mentioned in the Schedule below S.R. 317-(O)-5 at the Indian Institute of Sugarcane Research, Lucknow to officers of the Indian Institute of Sugarcane Research including staff engaged on temporary Schemes.

(3) They shall come into force with effect from the 1st November, 1962.

S.R. 317-(O)

2. Powers to make allotment—The allotment of residences shall be made by the Director, Indian Institute of Sugarcane Research hereinafter referred to as “the Director” in accordance with these Rules.

S.R. 317-(O)

3. Classification of residences—For purposes of allotment, the residences are classified as follows:—

Type I—For Class IV Staff.

Type II—Rs. 110—250.

Type III—Rs. 251—400.

Type IV—Rs. 401—700.

Type V—Rs. 701—1300.

Type VI—Rs. 1301—2250.

S.R. 317-(O)

4. Definitions—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context:—

(a) “Family” includes only the wife or husband as the case may be, children, step-children, parents, brothers and sisters ordinarily residing with and wholly dependent on the officer.

(b) “Family Officer” means an officer who has a family and expects one or more members of that family to reside with that officer for not less than six months during the year for which application for allotment is made.

(c) “Allotment Year” means a year beginning on the 1st day of April.

(d) “Government” means the Central Government.

(e) “Priority date” of an officer in relation to a class of residence to which he is entitled under the provision of rule 317-(O)-5 means the earliest date from which he has been continuously drawing emoluments specified against that class or a higher class under the Central Government except for periods of leave:

Provided that if two or more officers have the same priority date, priority among them shall be determined by the amount of emoluments; higher emoluments taking precedence over the emoluments next below, or where emoluments are equal, by the period for which those emoluments have been drawn in the post held by such officer at the time of application under rule 317-(O)-6, the longer period taking precedence over the period next below.

(f) “Qualifying appointment” means an appointment the incumbent of which is required to reside in Lucknow on duty with the Indian Institute of Sugarcane Research or any of its schemes.

- (g) "Residence" means any residence for the time being specified under Rule S. R. 317-(O)-3.
- (h) "Sub-letting" includes sharing of accommodation by an allottee with or without payment of rent but does not include a casual guest.
- (i) "Emoluments" for the purposes of these rules include pay, special pay, and personal pay and do not include any allowances.

S.R. 317-(O)

5 Reserved residences—Save as otherwise provided by or under these rules, after reserving the houses as specified in the Schedule below residences shall be allotted to family officers in accordance with classification made in rule S.R. 317-(O)-3 above.

SCHEDULE

Category of Houses	No. of houses to be reserved	Designation of officers for whom reserved
Type VI	One (1)	Director.
Type III	One (1)	Farm Superintendent.
Type II	Seven (1-7)	Agriculture Inspector, Farm Store Keeper, Store Keeper, (Engg., Cashier, Jeep, Truck & Tractor Drivers.
Type I	Six (1-6)	Farash, Sweeper, Peon, Cattle Attendant and 2 Chowkidars.

Note 1—Officers who are entitled to the particular reserved houses in accordance with this Schedule may be given first priority for allotment of residences in the categories to which they are entitled and may be allowed to occupy the houses earmarked for them as and when such houses fall vacant.

Note 2.—The occupants of reserved houses will be required to vacate their residences on transfer, promotion or reversion to posts with which no houses are attached. Alternative accommodation in the category to which the incumbent becomes entitled on transfer, promotion or reversion, may be allotted to him, if available, otherwise allotment may be made to him in the next below category giving him overriding priority in both the categories, provided he has been in authorised occupation of reserved house for not less than two years.

6. Applications for allotment of residence—

(1) Every Officer, who desires to have an allotment made or changed, under these rules, shall, in addition to his first application in this behalf, submit an application every year to the Director on 1st March.

(2) Every application shall be in such form as the Director may require and shall be signed by the applicant.

(3) The residences shall be allotted as and when they become available for allotment in accordance with the priority lists maintained by the Director.

S.R. 317-(O)

7. Maintenance of registers of residences—

(1) The Director shall maintain a register in three parts in respect of each class of residence.

(2) In part A will be included the names of those applicants to whom residences in that class have been allotted. In part B will be included the names of those applicants who are entitled to allotment of residence in that class, but have either been allotted a residence in a lower class or have no allotment under these rules; and in part C will be included names of those applicants who are entitled to allotment of residences in that class but have been allotted residences in a higher class provided that the name of an officer who has ceased to be entitled to allotment of residence in a particular class by reason of increase in his emoluments and has no allotment under these rules, shall be retained in Part B of the register, of each of the classes to which he had been entitled, for a period of not more than three years from the date on which he ceased to be entitled to accommodation in the class concerned.

(3) The names in Parts B and C shall be arranged according to the priority dates of applicants.

S.R. 317-(O)-8 Allotment of residences—

(1) As soon as residence in any class falls vacant, the Director shall allot it to the applicant whose name is first in Part B of the register of that class:

Provided that if there are any names in part C of that register and if the immediately preceding allotment of residence in that class was made to an applicant whose name was in Part B of the register the allotment shall be made to the applicant whose name as last in Part C of the register.

Provided further that if there are no names in Part B or Part C of the register of that class, the allotment shall be made to the applicant drawing the highest emoluments whose name is in Part A of the register of the next lower class.

(2) If two or more residences in the same class fall vacant at the same time, the Director shall in allotting them, in accordance with sub-rule (1) have regard so far as may be, to any preference expressed by the applicants concerned.

(3) (i) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rules (1) and (2) no officer shall be eligible for allotment of a residence under these rules or if he is already in occupation of such residence for its continued retention, if:—

- (a) he owns, or has, since the allotment of a residence become the owner in full or in part whether in his own name or in the name of any other person of a house in Lucknow which is located within six miles of the place of his duty and in which he can, in the opinion of the Director, Indian Institute of Sugarcane Research reside consistently with his official position; or
- (b) his wife or any dependent, child owns, or has, since the allotment of a residence, become the owner, in full or in part, of a house in Lucknow which is located within six miles of the place of his duty and in which he can, in the opinion of the Director, Indian Institute of Sugarcane Research reside consistently with his official position; or
- (c) his father, mother or any other dependent relation owns, or has, since the allotment of a residence, become the owner of a house in Lucknow which is located within six miles of the place of his duty and in which he can, in the opinion of the Director, reside consistently with his official position and without undue inconvenience either to himself or to the owner thereof.

(ii) Any officer who on any date (hereafter in these rules referred to as the relevant date) subsequent to the date of his making application for allotment of a residence or subsequent to the date of the allotment becomes ineligible for such allotment under sub-clause (a) or sub-clause (b) or sub-clause (c) of clause (i) shall notify the fact to the Director within a period of seven days of the relevant date. In the event of the Officer's failure to so notify him, the Director may reject the application for allotment or, if an allotment has already been sanctioned, cancel such allotment with effect from the relevant date and require the officer to vacate the residence forthwith.

(iii) Notwithstanding anything contained in clauses (i) and (ii) the Director may allot or re-allot residence to an officer if:—

- (a) the house owned by him, his wife, any dependent child or by his father, mother or any other dependent relation has been requisitioned by Government, or
- (b) it is proved to the satisfaction of the Director that such house was given out on lease:—
  - (1) before the posting of the officer to Lucknow; or
  - (2) before the acquisition of such house by him, his wife, any dependent child, or by his father, mother or any other dependent relation; or
  - (3) with the express approval of the Director; and the Director, Indian Institute of Sugarcane Research is satisfied that it is not possible for the lessor, for reasons beyond his control to obtain vacant possession of the house.

(iv) Where any residence has been allotted or re-allotted to an officer under clause (iii) (b) (3) the officer shall be liable, with effect from the date specified in the order of allotment or re-allotment to pay standard rent under Fundamental Rule 45-B or standard rent under F.R. 45-A Plus 33½% thereof or pooled standard rent under F.R. 45-A plus 33½% thereof where the rents have been pooled on ten per cent of his emoluments, whichever is the highest for so long as he or his wife or any dependent child, or his father or mother or any other dependent relation as the case may be, is unable to obtain vacant possession of the house.

(v) If at any time it appears to the Director that no efforts have been made to obtain vacant possession of the house, it shall be open to the Director to give suitable direction as to the steps to be taken to obtain vacant possession of the house and, if such directions are not complied with, to cancel the allotment and to require the allottee to vacate the residence forthwith, or to charge rent for residence under Government of India decision (2) below Fundamental Rule 45-B or twice the standard rent under F.R. 45-A or twice the pooled standard rent under F.R. 45-A where rents have been pooled or 15 per cent of his emoluments, whichever is the highest.

(vi) The allotment of an officer to whom the provisions of sub-clause (a) or sub-clause (b) or sub-clause (c) of clause (i) apply shall be cancelled with effect from the date specified in the order of cancellation. It shall, however, be open to the Government to allot or re-allot Government accommodation to the officer on payment of rent under Government of India decision (2) below F.R. 45-B or twice the standard rent under F.R. 45-A or twice the pooled standard rent under F.R. 45-A where the rents have been pooled or 15 per cent of his emoluments, whichever is the highest.

S.R. 317-(O)-9. Non-acceptance of allotment of residence—

If an officer fails to accept the allotment to him of a residence under these rules within five days after the date of allotment or fails to take possession of that residence within eight days after the date of allotment:—

- (a) he shall not be eligible for another allotment under these rules for a period of six months from the said date;
- (b) the residence in question shall be re-allotted according to the provisions of these rules;
- (c) any previous allotment of a residence made to him under these rules shall be deemed to be cancelled with effect from the said date, and he shall vacate the residence forthwith; and
- (d) in addition to any disciplinary or other action that may be taken against him, he shall be charged the full standard rent under F.R. 45-B or twice the full standard rent under F.R. 45-A, or twice the pooled standard rent under F.R. 45-A, if the rent has been pooled of the residence or 15 per cent of his emoluments, whichever is the highest in respect of any period for which he continues to occupy that residence after the said date.

S.R. 317-(O)-10. Acceptance of allotment of residence—

An allotment shall be effective from the date on which it is accepted by the officer concerned, and shall continue until:—

- (a) it is cancelled by the Director, or is deemed to be cancelled under these rules, or
- (b) it is surrendered by the officer concerned, or
- (c) the officer concerned ceases to occupy the residence:

Provided that an officer who goes on leave or on deputation or transfer out of India or on foreign service or on temporary transfer may, with the previous approval of the Director retain allotment:—

- (i) In case of leave preparatory to retirement or during refused leave granted under F.R. 86 for the period of leave on full average pay subject to a minimum of one month and maximum period of four months inclusive of the period of one month permissible under rule S.R. 317-O-17.
- (ii) In the case of any other leave, for a period not exceeding four months.

- (iii) In the case of deputation or transfer out of India, for a period not exceeding six months,
- (iv) In the case of foreign service in India or temporary transfer, for a period not exceeding four months, subject to the following conditions, namely:—
  - (a) in any of the cases mentioned in clauses (ii) to (iv) above the officer concerned shall, before proceeding on leave or temporary transfer obtain and submit a certificate from the Director, Indian Institute of Sugarcane Research stating the period and nature of his leave or transfer and certifying that the officer should be returning to duty to the Indian Institute of Sugarcane Research at Lucknow on the expiry of that period;
  - (b) in any of the cases mentioned in clauses (iii) and (iv) above it should be certified by the officer concerned that the residence is required for the occupation of and is in fact occupied by his family;
- (v) in the case of an officer transferred from the Indian Institute of Sugarcane Research to a sub-station of the Indian Institute of Sugarcane Research or to any offices under the Government of India, the Director may at his discretion, permit the continued occupation of the allotted residence for a period of two months subsequent to the date of transfer provided:—
  - (a) the conditions laid down under Rule S.R. 317-(O)-10(iv)(a) are fulfilled;
  - (b) without prejudice to any other action that may be taken, if the residence is not vacated within this period of two months rent will be recoverable under F.R. 45-B for the entire period of occupation of the residence subsequent to the date of transfer.

S.R. 317-(O)-11. Application for change of residence—

(1) An officer to whom a residence of the appropriate category has been allotted under these rules may apply for a change of allotment within the same category in any of the yearly application made by him under the rules.

(2) The Director shall, in respect of each category of residences, maintain a list of officers who have applied for such change, arranging them in the order of their date of priority.

(3) Whenever a residence falls vacant, it shall first be offered in order of priority to the officers in the list pertaining to that category of residences maintained under sub-rule (2) of this rule, and if any of them accepts the residence in exchange for the one occupied by him, the residence vacated by him shall be deemed to be the residence available for allotment and shall be allotted accordingly.

(4) If an officer fails to accept a change of residence offered to him under sub-rule (3) within five days of the date of such offer, he shall not be eligible for a change of allotment under this rule within the category of residential accommodation already allotted to him.

(5) No officer shall be allowed a change of allotment within the same category more than once under this rule.

S.R. 317-(O)-12. Change of residence—

Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules an officer may be allowed a change of residence within the same class on the death in that residence of his wife, child or other close relation residing with him provided he applies for a change within one month of such occurrence.

S.R. 317-(O)-13. Exchange of residence—

Officers to whom residences have been allotted may, with the approval of the Director, exchange residence within the same class.

S.R. 317-(O)-14. Surrender of allotment of residence—

1. An officer may at any time surrender an allotment made to him under these rules; and if he does so—

- (a) he will not retain any right on the particular residence allotted to him;
- (b) he will be entitled on a fresh application made in this behalf to another allotment from such date as he may mention in the application, but not earlier than six months from the date of vacation of the residence after its surrender.

2. An officer surrendering an allotment under this rule should send to the Director a letter to this effect at least ten days before the date of vacation of the residence. The allotment of the residence shall be deemed to be cancelled with effect from the 11th day of the date on which the letter is received by the Director or the date specified in the letter whichever is later.

S.R. 317-(O)-15. Retention of residence after transfer—

1. If the officer to whom a residence has been allotted is under orders of transfer from Lucknow or is not required to reside on duty with Indian Institute of Sugarcane Research in Lucknow he shall forthwith intimate the fact to the Director and shall also inform him of the date on which he intends to vacate the residence at least ten days before that date.

2. Subject to the provision made in the rules, an officer shall not be entitled to retain his residence, for more than two months from the date of his transfer and the allotment shall stand cancelled on the expiry of these two months or on the date of vacation of the residence, whichever is earlier.

S.R. 317-(O)-16. Retention of residence after death of allottee—

If an officer to whom a residence has been allotted dies, the allotment shall be cancelled with effect from four months after the date of death of the officer or with effect from the date after such death on which the residence is actually vacated, whichever is earlier.

S.R. 317(O)-17. Retention of residence after retirement, etc.—

If an officer to whom a residence is allotted retires or resigns, or is dismissed or removed from service, the allotment shall be cancelled with effect from one month after the date of his retirement, resignation, dismissal or removal as the case may be or with effect from the date after such dismissal, removal or retirement on which the residence is actually vacated, whichever is earlier.

S.R. 317-(O)-18. Notice period for vacating residence—

An officer to whom a residence has been allotted shall, before vacating the residence, give not less than ten days' notice in writing to the Director. If he does not do so, he shall be responsible for payment of rent for the number of days by which the notice given by him falls short of ten days from the date of vacation subsequent to the date of vacation of the residence.

S.R. 317-(O)-19. Sub-letting of residence—

(1) No officer shall sub-let a residence allotted to him or any portion thereof, or any of the out-houses appurtenant thereto except with the prior permission of the Director.

(2) Such permission may be granted:—

- (a) to an officer proceeding on leave who wishes to sub-let the residence for the whole or any part of the period for which he is entitled to retain the allotment under the rules;
- (b) to an officer who does not wish to occupy the residence during any part of the year beginning on the 1st April and wishes to sub-let it to a family officer for that period.

(3) Notwithstanding that the permission of the Director has been obtained to a sub-lease under sub-rule (2)—

(a) the lessor shall remain personally responsible for any rent payable in respect of the residence and for any damage caused to the residence, premises or services provided by Government beyond fair wear and tear; and

(b) the rent payable by the lessee, in respect of the residence or services provided by Government shall not, except with the previous sanction of the Director, exceed the rent payable in such respects to Government by the lessor.

(4) Such permission may also be granted to an officer for sharing the residence allotted to him with—

(a) a Government servant eligible for accommodation in the pool of residences at the Indian Institute of Sugarcane Research or

(b) a close relative.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-rule; whether a person is a close relative or not shall be decided by the Director.

(5) If an officer sub-lets a residence allotted to him or any portion thereof or any of the out-house appurtenant thereto without the permission of the Director, he shall, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him, be charged, the full standard rent of the residence under F.R. 45-B for the period of such sub-letting.

S.R. 317-(O)-20. Commencement of rent—

The liability for rent shall commence from the date of occupation of the residence or from the eighth day after the date of allotment of the residence, whichever is earlier.

S.R. 317-(O)-21. Responsibility for rent—

(1) The officer to whom a residence has been allotted shall be personally responsible for the rent thereof and for any damage beyond fair wear and tear, caused thereto or to the furniture or services provided therein by Government during the period for which the residence has been and remains allotted to him.

(2) Where the officer to whom a residence has been allotted is a temporary officer, he shall execute a security bond in the form prescribed in this behalf by the Central Government with a surety who shall be a permanent Government servant for payment of all rent and other charges payable by him in respect of such residence.

(3) If the surety to the security bond dies, retires from service, becomes insolvent or ceases to be available for any reason, the officer shall furnish another surety to the bond within ten days from the date of his knowledge of the death, retirement, insolvency or non-availability of the former surety; and if he fails to do so, the allotment of the residence to him shall, unless otherwise decided by the Director, be deemed to have been cancelled.

S.R. 317-(O)-22. Furniture in residence—

(1) Furniture, in accordance with the scale to be approved by the Government, may be provided by Government in any residence at the request of the officer to whom that residence has been allotted.

(2) Rent in respect of furniture provided by Government shall be recoverable in accordance with the provision, under S.R. 325.

(3) The officer to whom a residence has been allotted shall be required, both when he enters into occupation of the residence and also when he vacates it, to sign an inventory of the furniture and fittings.

S.R. 317-(O)-23. Maintenance of residence—

The officer to whom a residence has been allotted, shall maintain the residence and premises, in a clean condition to the satisfaction of the Lucknow Cantonment authorities which is responsible only for the final disposal of rubbish and night soil.

S.R. 317-(O)-24. Allotment of alternate accommodation—

As far as possible all the officers who are already in occupation of a duly allotted residence on the date of coming into effect of these rules and without paying rent shall be offered alternative accommodation in the category of residence to which they are entitled under these rules. Such persons who are not offered alternative accommodation in the category to which they are entitled will be offered next lower category, if available, till quarters in the entitled categories are available. If any person declines to accept the accommodation then offered, he shall not be entitled to the protection of this rule, and shall have to vacate the accommodation occupied by him.

S.R. 317-(O)-25. Maintenance of gardens attached to residence—

(1) The Officer to whom a residence has been allotted shall not permit trees or shrubs in the premises to be cut down or looped save with the consent of the Director.

(2) The Officer to whom a residence has been allotted shall comply with any orders of the Director for the time being in force in respect of the garden attached thereto.

S.R. 317-(O)-26. Breach of rules—

(1) If the officer to whom a residence has been allotted commits any breach of any of the rules or of the terms and conditions of the allotment under these rules or uses the residence or premises, or permits the residence or premises to be used for any purpose which the Director considers to be improper or conducts himself in a manner which, in the opinion of the Director is prejudicial to the maintenance of harmonious relations with his neighbours, or if it is found that the officer has knowingly furnished incorrect information in any application or written statement with a view to securing the allotment, the Director may without prejudice to any other disciplinary action that may be taken against him,

- (a) Cancel the allotment of that residence to him or, if the officer has failed to notify to the Director as provided for in sub-rule (3) (ii) (2) of S.R. 317-(O)-8 or while so notifying has in any application or statement suppressed material particulars relevant to clauses (a), (b) or (c) of sub-rule (3) (i) and also (ii) of rule 317-(O)-8 cancel the allotment with effect from the relevant date or if the allotment has been sanctioned on any date subsequently to the relevant date with effect from the date of allotment and in either case, require the officer to vacate the residence forthwith, and

- (b) declare him to be ineligible for a residence during a specified period:

Provided that where the allotment of a residence is cancelled for conduct prejudicial to the maintenance of harmonious relation with the neighbours, the officer may be allotted another residence in the same class at any other place.

- (2) For the purpose of this rule "improper use" shall include—

- (a) charging of excessive rent from the sub-lessee or from the guest;
- (b) erecting unauthorised structures in any part of the residence;
- (c) using the residence or a portion thereof for purposes other than those for which they are meant; and
- (d) unauthorised extension from electric and water connections for tampering therewith.

S.R. 317-(O)-27. Rent for unauthorised occupation—

Where, after the cancellation of an allotment under any of these rules other than rule S.R. 317-(O)-9, the residence remains or has remained in the occupation of an officer to whom it was allotted or of any one claiming through him the full standard rent of the residence under Fundamental Rule 45-B or twice the standard rent under Fundamental Rule 45-A if the rent has been pooled, or 15 per cent of the emoluments of the officer, whichever is the highest may be charged for the period of such occupation.

S.R. 317-(O)-28. Interpretation of Rules—

If any question arises as to interpretation of these rules, the decision of the President shall be final.

S.R. 317-(O)-29. Relaxation of Rules—

The President may relax any or all these rules in the case of any officer or residence or class of officers or residences.

S.R. 317-(O)-30. Delegation of Powers—

The President may delegate any of the powers or functions conferred upon him by these rules to any officer under his control subject to such conditions as he may deem fit to impose.
